COMMITTEE GETS

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Thomas F. Conway, of Clinton, was the only candidate who had an organized effort started in his behalf. The delegates of Essex, Franklin, St. Lawrence, Clinton and Lewis counties held a conference just before the close of the convention and indorsed him as their choice for the nomination for Governor.

Ambassador Gerard, his friends said, would come to this country early in the fall to make speeches in support of andidate for Governor, but the fluential of the leaders are Willard Bartlett as Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals when the latter retires because of the age limit.

William Church Osborn, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, seems to have the field to himself, so far as upstate is concerned, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator. Senator O'Gorman is not expected to try to succeed himself, and the selection of Mr. Osborn would find favor with the Administration at Washington.
